Frascio SL6 Series

Your ideal solution for the high-end hospitality industry

One-Stop Solution

With nearly 80 years of experience, Frascio has evolved to serve hospitality projects worldwide. Whether it's a typical guest room entry door, an in-room bathroom door, or sliding doors, our vast selection of levers are designed to fit any door material or decorative trim requirement. With commercial quality and durability, UL fire-rating where applicable, and compliance to ANSI standards, we comprehend the requirements of the hospitality industry.

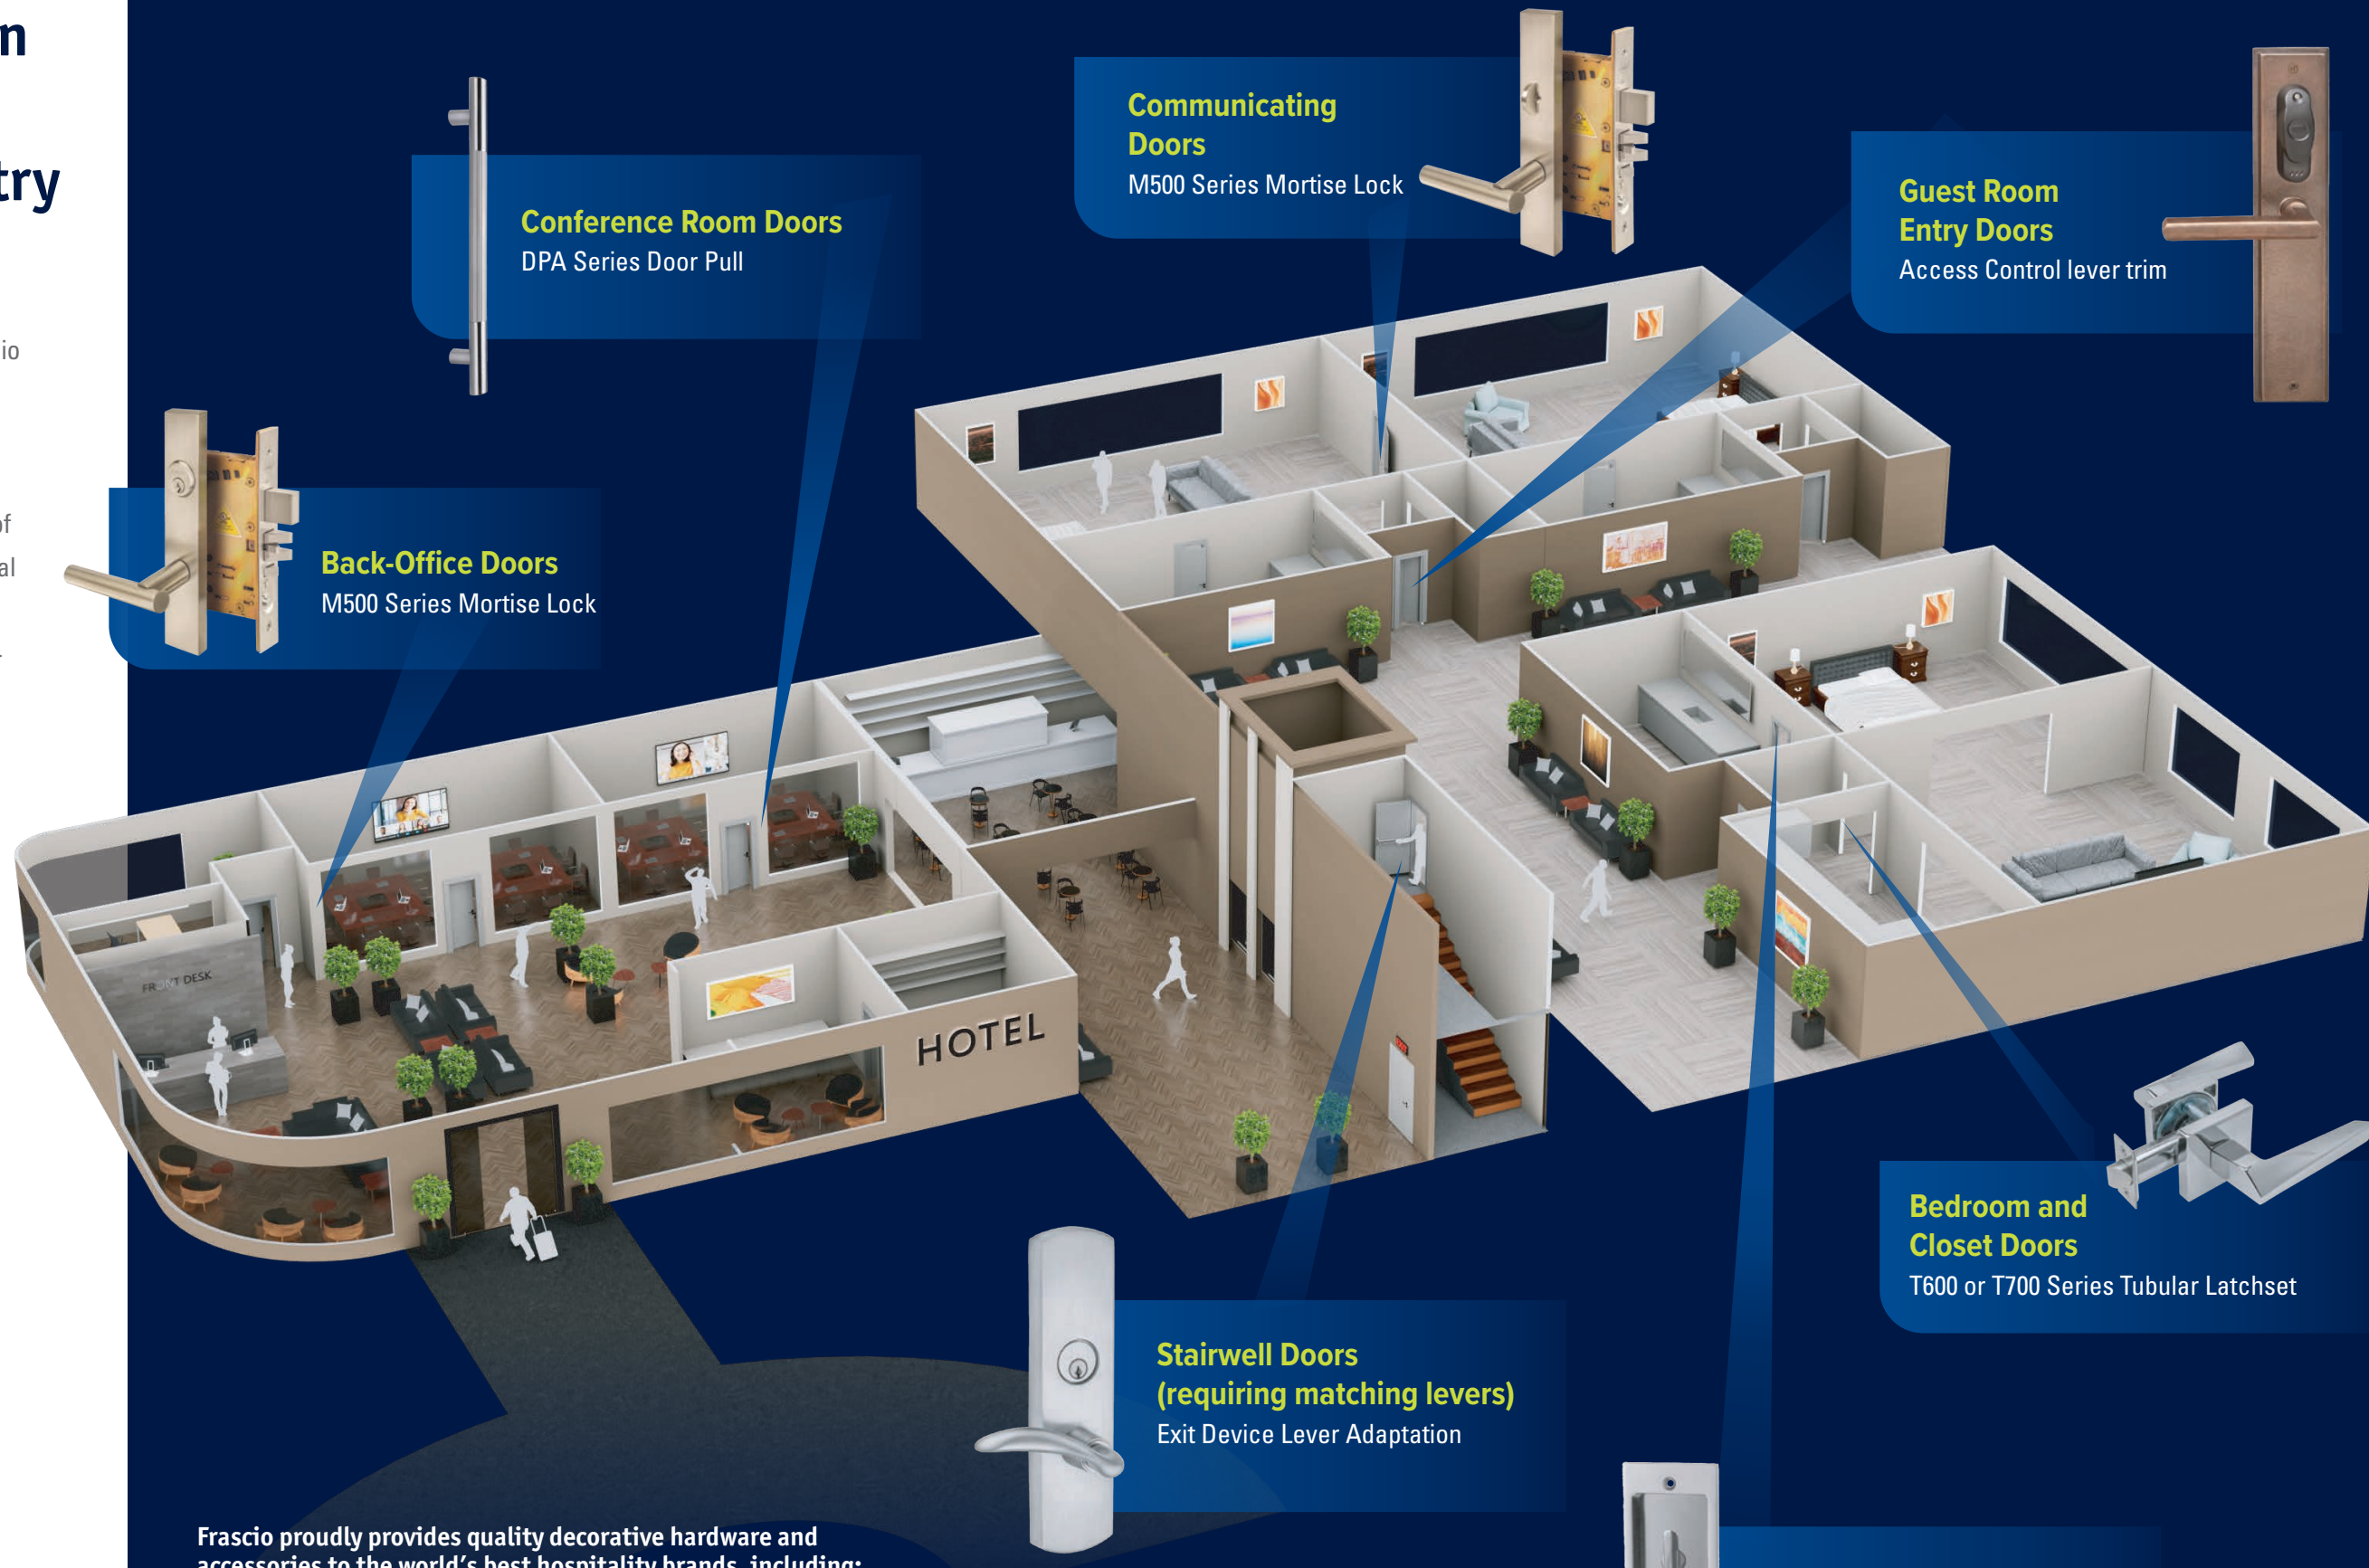

Consistent Design Throughout the Project

In the world of luxury hospitality, every detail matters. From the grandeur of the lobby to the comfort of the guest rooms, creating a seamless and cohesive environment is essential. We provide high-end designed decorative handles and trims that build continuity and elevate the ambiance of every space.

Custom Solutions

Our collaborative approach and team of in-house engineers allows us to work closely with designers, working shoulder to shoulder to bring their visions to life. Whether it's creating new designs or adapting existing ones, we're dedicated to delivering tailor-made solutions
